A G E N D A

1. Introduction of Attendees and any New Participants
2. Speaker: Rob Ashbourne, CFO of Scott Plastics

Rob Ashbourne began his career at Scott Plastics in the early 90s as a moulding machine operator and moved through the marine division and into office providing computer and accounting system support.

Scott Plastics Ltd is a 65 year old family business with 2nd and 3rd generations family members active in many parts of the operation.

Scott Plastics Ltd is more commonly recognized by its trade-name "Scotty". Scott Plastics Ltd is a diverse company with divisions focus in the areas of fishing and marine, fire fighting and custom moulding.

Our topic will focus on company history & principles, the founding of the Scotty product line, including the marine and fire products, along with discussing distributing products globally.

The organization is also an integrated manufacturing plant with a full featured tool room including two CNC mills, a 17 moulding machine operation, and product assembly area, which is all housed in a purpose built manufacturing facility. Scott Plastics recently expanded the plant by 22,000 sq ft which now provides for 78,000 sq feet of production and office capacity. Scott Plastics also recently purchased a new 400T Engel moulding machine and state of the art CNC Makino mill.

3. Notice of upcoming meetings and/or topics of interest
